Ahrad ov the North.—In many thinge the North has for a long time been abend of the South, merely because our people have neglected their natural advantages. In nothing was this more palpably the case than in the manufacture of doors, sashes, blinds, mouldings, dc. This was noticed by Mr. P. P. Tosle, an enterprising Charles tonian, and he has now one of the largest and most enceesful manufactories of doors, sashes and blinds in the whole country.—See his advertisement. Office Board County Commissioners. GREENVILLE, S. C. Sept. 28, 1870.
THE ANNUAL MEETING of the Board on the First Tuesday in November next.
All persons having demands against the County will deposit them, duly attested, at this office, on or before the 1st of November.

1870, or their claims will not be audited at said Annual Meeting.

Clerk of Board County Commissioners.

The State of South Carolina, GREENVILLE COUNTY.

By S. J. DOUTHIT, Esquire, Judge of Probate of said County.

WHERAS, William B. League has filed a Petition in my Office, praying that Letters of Administration on all and singular the goods and chattles, rights and credits of MARTHAT, LEAGUE, late of the County aforesaid, deceased, should be granted to him.

These are therefore to site and administration.

These are therefore, to cite and admonish all and singular the kindred and ereditors of the said deceased, to be and appear in the Court of Probate for said County, to be holden at Greenville Court House, on the 20th day of October inst. to show cause, if any, why the said Administration should not be granted.

S. J. DOUTHIT. Office Judge of Probate, October 6, 1870.

$5.00 REWARD.

STRAYED from the subscri ber, sometime in last July, a large bodied, WHITE COW rather short in legs. She had no ear-marks, and the most noticeable feature in her was two red spots, divided by a streak of white, on her left side. The whole of her neck was red. Had rather small, short tests; horns tolerably wide spart. Had on a large bell, when she left,

The above reward will be paid on the delivery of the cow to me, at Greenville Court House.
